

2022 - 2023 Course Offerings

Fall 2022 - A study of Covenants: Finding God's Heart in the Revelation of Rest

This course studies the covenants God made with mankind. These covenants are a significant part of the progressive revelation of His person and His intentions for us. We examine the revelation of "Rest" or "Sabbath" as it emerges in the unfolding revelation of each covenant. Students will find a rich biblical understanding of the peace with God they enjoy through our Lord Jesus Christ and will be equipped to throw off the harassing arguments of legalism, condemnation and what Paul called the basic spiritual thinking of this world. Filled with truth and revelation this very practically applied course will answer questions and help you find rest. 10 week course; meets weekly.

Prerequisites: None

Fall 2023 - God's Process of Preparation for Ministry

God enrolls everyone He calls into a process of preparation. That process is often misunderstood by the people God is committed to preparing. Many question the pressures, struggles, pain and suffering they endure when they have turned their hearts and lives towards God. This course seeks to bring clarity and acceptance—even eagerness—to people whom God has enrolled in a developmental process. It will supply a sense of eternal purpose for temporary pains. Its motive is to inspire participants who are tempted to give up on their training to stay the course, to dedicate their lives to eternal purposes rather than temporary pursuits, to dedicate themselves to service for their King with the goal of a more intimate relationship with Him. Filled with descriptions of the tests we will probably take in order to learn the lessons we must master, the course will also be a great encouragement and time of impartation for ministry. 10 week course; meets weekly

Prerequisite: Foundational understanding of the Gospel of Grace and the Holy Spirit
