

Who's who?

Greg Haswell | 6 August 2017

16 This is how we know what love is: Jesus Christ laid down his life for us.

9 This is how God showed his love among us: He sent his one and only Son into the world that we might live through him. 10 This is love: not that we loved God, but that he loved us and sent his Son as an atoning sacrifice for our sins.

1 JOHN 3:16, 1 JOHN 4:9-10

31 What, then, shall we say in response to these things? If God is for us, who can be against us? 32 He who did not spare his own Son, but gave him up for us all—how will he not also, along with him, graciously give us all things?

ROMANS 8:31-32

31 What, then, shall we say in response to these things? If God is for us, who can be against us? 32 He who did not spare his own Son, but gave him up for us all—how will he not also, along with him, graciously give us all things?

ROMANS 8:31-32

.... in response to these things?

v1 There is no condemnation for those in Christ

v2 Law of the Spirit of life set me free from the law of sin and death

v3 God did for me what I was powerless to do v4 God broke sins power over me so that the demands of the Law have been completely met

. . . . in response to these things?

v5 Holy Spirit now governs my desires v6 Holy Spirit brings life and peace to my mind

v9 Because Holy Spirit lives in me I have access to the spirit realm and am freed from the fleshly realm

v10 Our bodies may be dying but our Spirits are alive in righteousness

. . . . in response to these things?

v13 We have an obligation to live according to Holy Spirit

v14 In following Holy Spirit we become mature children

v15 Holy Spirit delivers us from fear and strengthens our connection to Father God in adoption v16 Holy Spirit constantly confirms we are children and heirs of God

. . . . in response to these things?

v17 Even if we have to suffer we receive greater glory

v21 All of creation waits in anticipation for us to walk in full freedom

v23 We are also longing for our full redemption

v25 So we adopt patience while we wait for the rest of what God promised

. . . . in response to these things?

v28 In everything and each situation God works for our good v29 God predestined us to be conformed to Jesus image

v30 He set a process in motion that He guarantees
- predestined, called, justified, glorified

God is for us

Who can be against us?

31 What, then, shall we say in response to these things? If God is for us, who can be against us? 32 He who did not spare his own Son, but gave him up for us all—how will he not also, along with him, graciously give us all things?

ROMANS 8:31-32

God justifies us
Who can condemn us?

33 Who will bring any charge against those whom God has chosen? It is God who justifies. 34 Who then is the one who condemns? No one. Christ Jesus who died—more than that, who was raised to life—is at the right hand of God and is also interceding for us.

ROMANS 8:33-34

38 "Therefore, my friends, I want you to know that through Jesus the forgiveness of sins is proclaimed to you. 39 Through him everyone who believes is set free from every sin, a justification you were not able to obtain under the law of Moses.

(declared good and right and whole before God)

Message Version

ACTS 13:38-39

God loves us

Who can separate us from His love?

35 Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall trouble or hardship or persecution or famine or nakedness or danger or sword? 36 As it is written: "For your sake we face death all day long; we are considered as sheep to be slaughtered." 37 No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him who loved us. 38 For I am convinced that neither death nor life, neither angels nor demons, neither the present nor the future, nor any powers, 39 neither height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God that is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

ROMANS 8:35-39

ROMANS 8:35-39

30 It is because of him that you are in Christ Jesus, who has become for us wisdom from God—that is, our righteousness, holiness and redemption.

1 CORINTHIANS 1:30

God is for us - Who can be against us?

God justifies us - Who can condemn us?

God loves us - Who can separate us from His love?

Who's who?
