As soon as he had finished speaking to Saul, the soul of Jonathan was knit to the soul of David, and Jonathan loved him as his own soul. And Saul took him that day and would not let him return to his father's house. Then Jonathan made a covenant with David, because he loved him as his own soul. And Jonathan stripped himself of the robe that was on him and gave it to David, and his armor, and even his sword and his bow and his belt. And David went out and was successful wherever Saul sent him, so that Saul set him over the men of war. And this was good in the sight of all the people and also in the sight of Saul's servants.

1 Samuel. 18:1-5

How do we Build?

A Lie to Reject:

Coming to Northlands or Joining a

find community

And they devoted themselves to the apostles' teaching and the fellowship, to the breaking of bread and the prayers. And awe came upon every soul, and many wonders and signs were being done through the apostles. And all who believed were together and had all things in common. And they were selling their possessions and belongings and distributing the proceeds to all, as any had need. And day by day, attending the temple together and breaking bread in their homes, they received their food with glad and generous hearts, praising God and having favor with all the people. And the Lord added to their number day by day those who were being saved.

Acts. 2:42-47

1. Truth to Embrace:
You don't find great community,
you build it.

2. Truth to Embrace:

It's not about doing something

It's about being someone

Be Meek

Be a Celebrator

The background of the image is a landscape featuring a range of mountains under a dramatic sky. The sky transitions from a deep orange and red on the left to a dark teal on the right. The mountains are silhouetted against the sky, with some peaks catching the light. A thin, light green oval is drawn around the word 'Selfless' in the text.
